Our method comprises also novel procedures, training and checkpoint control programs for the complete system of the COCONUTRATE, starting from the selection of organic trees grown on nutrient-rich soils of the volcanic island of Java - Indonesia, the harvesting of phloem exudates, up to the final stage of the production and packaging of the end-product of COCONUTRATE.

This novel system contributes to having also well-trained tappers, farmers and personnel working in accordance with all requirements for hygiene, safety, and quality, in strict compliance with the American FDA'S Food Facility Registration Rules and ISO 22000:2018 Safety Management System to ensure:

- a whole operation and management under biological and mechanical practices that fully support ecological balance, on-farm cycling of resources, and the conservation of biodiversity, and
- a world-class 100% organic high-quality food product containing all the natural nutrients, aroma and taste of the phloem exudates of coconut trees.

COCONUTRATE carries therefore industry-standard certification seals, such as: HCCP, ISO 22000, FDA registered, HALAL, NOP- USDA, EU Organic, CANADA Organic, Kosher, Halal, Fair for Life (Fairtrade).
